

Dear Readers,

Furniture and Fittings Skill Council (FFSC) restarted the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) training under Skill Ambassador Campaign (SAC) following the guidelines issued by MOHFW and MSDE.

FFSC representatives and Skill Ambassadors on ground are making sure that all necessary precautions are in place in terms of hygiene, social distancing, mask distribution before the start of the session.

FFSC has started the session from Nawada and Jamui districts of Bihar for Assistant Carpenters with special sessions from Industry and Academic experts who attend online via video conferencing.

FFSC Team takes the orientation session for the candidates by covering the introduction of the skilling ecosystem, COVID-19 protocols to be followed, soft skills, details of the PMKVY scheme its benefits and opportunities through RPL certification.

The session gauges the experience of the candidates, the challenges they face and their expectation from the RPL program. Employment opportunities available with the industry partners of FFSC were also shared with the candidates.

Academic Session saw participation by Master Trainers from institutes like Bhartiya Skill Development University (BSDU).

The sessions cover the traditional vs modern aspects of carpentry, the initiatives taken by the institute for the ‘Skill India’ initiative and details about the training courses, application process and infrastructure available at the institute.

Industry experts participate in the domain training sessions to take specific modules for the candidates and clear their queries.

Experts from Hettich India and Installco WIFY have taken the sessions and informed the candidates about technical modules like hinges/fittings, the industry scenario, international standards and opportunities for the workforce in the sector.

The last session is for Assessment of the candidates to attain RPL certification which are conducted online through mobile phones/tablets. Candidates are assigned grades as per their performance and are given certificate and marksheet.
